THE EAGLE INFORMATION BUREAU.

This department is not only unique, but very useful to the general public. Any one, rich or poor, black or white, can use it and secure its advantages without cost. Fees or tips to clerks are absolutely prohibited. In this department of the Brooklyn Eagle, on the fourth floor of the Eagle Building, are many handsome wall racks, and filing cabinets in which are kept for free distribution to the public, the literature of resort hotels, the railroad and steamship lines, also for inspection, photographs of houses and scenes at many of the resorts of the country.

Information is given concerning routes of travel and the cost of going anywhere on earth, and where are the best places to stop. Details of colleges, academies, seminaries and schools are kept in the bureau for free access by the public. School catalogues and circulars are kept for gratuitous distribution.

A late innovation of the Eagle Information Bureau is the addition of an automobile department, in which are kept catalogues, circulars and business literature of the American and foreign automobile concerns. In this department also, road maps and information about best routes for automobiles can be obtained. The public is invited to partake of the Eagle Bureau's benefits.

Pan-American Palace of Peace.

The new Bureau of American Republics Building, to be located in the historic Van Ness Park, Washington, D. C., and to be known as the Pan-American Palace of Peace, is to cost $600,000, with interior furnishings to cost $250,000. The government donates $250,000 and Andrew Carnegie $750,000 to the project. The competition for plans closed June 15, 1907, between eight architects.

Forests in France.

France contains in all 23,500,000 acres of forests, of which the state owns 2,707,000 and the communes 3,472,000 acres. The rest is owned by private interests. The ash, chestnut and oak have nearly disappeared and $20,000,000 of pine was imported in 1906.

Ex-Governor Higgins.

Frank W. Higgins, born at Rushford, N. Y., Aug. 13, 1856, died at Olean, N. Y., Feb. 12, 1907, was educated at Riverview Military Academy, Poughkeepsie, N. Y.; became a sales agent for a Western oil refinery in 1873, partner in a mercantile firm at Stanton, Mich., in 1895, buying out the entire interest in 1896. In 1879 he bought a part interest in his father's nine grocery stores at Olean and other

New York towns. In 1884 he owned the three stores in Olean. His political career began in 1888 as a delegate to the National Republican Convention at Chicago. He was elected N. Y. State Senator in 1893, re-elected in 1895 and served in the Senate as chairman of the Committee on Finance continuously. In 1902 he was elected Lieut.-Governor on the Odell ticket and in 1904 Governor. His ill health during this last period was one of the causes that precluded a renomination in 1906.

THE BROOKLYN EAGLE ALMANAC.

VOLUME XXIII.

JANUARY, 1908.

No. 1 OF EAGLE LIBRARY

THE BROOKLYN DAILY EAGLE.

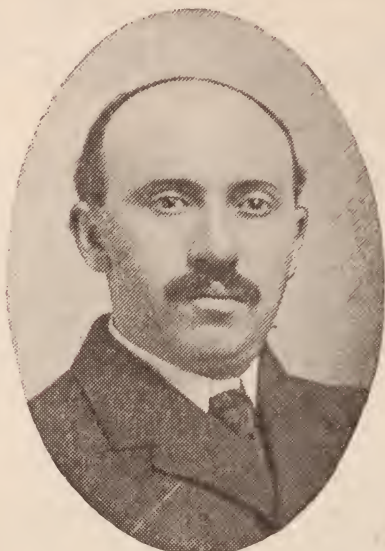

A PROSPEROUS year with increasing business possibilities and demands has brought to the EAGLE a full share of successful response. Among new features inaugurated during 1907 has been the weekly Long Island and Industrial supplement issued with the Saturday EAGLE, and The Junior EAGLE, covering an original field in journalism for young people issued in connection with the Sunday EAGLE. Both these features met at once with a reception so favorable and wide that they have become popular features of the Saturday and Sunday editions. Other new features are the automobile system of delivery of papers, and Aunt Jean's coupon credit system. The pictorial supplement which includes a double sporting page, the sermon features of the Monday issue, reaching a widely contrasted constituency, have kept pace with up-to-date methods, always characteristic of the Daily EAGLE. Still another new EAGLE building on Ninth Street, for the use of the Fifth Avenue Branch, is in line with the Eagle's progressive policy.

THE EAGLE'S LIGHT AND POWER SUPPLY.

ALL the artificial light used in the Eagle Building, and the power to run their entire equipment of machinery, including elevators, linotypes and printing presses, is electric, and is supplied by the Edison Electric Illuminating Company, of Brooklyn.

Prior to the opening of the enlarged Eagle Building, in 1904, the machinery had been operated by steam. Then it was decided that for both the old and new plant electric power would be far more convenient and effective and the change was determined upon. The original plans contemplated the generation of the necessary current by engines and dynamos on the premises, but a further and complete investigation prior to the purchase of dynamos, convinced the Eagle that to secure driving energy from Edison mains would be a more advantageous and economical method of operation. Accordingly they entered into a five years' contract with the Edison Company for their exclusive lighting and power service, changed their elevators over from hydraulic to electric, and equipped all their type-setting, printing, stereotyping and book-binding machinery with direct connected electric motors, eliminating steam absolutely, except during the winter months, when it is used at low pressure for heating only.

The controlling reason that governed the Eagle in the making of this contract was economy, the management having become thoroughly convinced that they could buy their current supply from the Edison Company cheaper than it was possible to generate it in a plant of their own; but the absolute reliability of the Edison service was also a determining factor, for it can be readily appreciated that in the case of a daily newspaper, whose time of going to press is calculated to a nicety in order to make close connections with an extensive delivery system, any sudden failure or cessation of power, even for a few minutes, would be a very serious contingency, to be most carefully and zealously guarded against.

ECLIPSES.

There will be but three eclipses this year, and all of the Sun, as follows:

I. Total, January 3, invisible in the United States, except in the extreme south and southwestern parts, where the Eclipse will be partial, small and on the southern limb about sunset. No part of the Eclipse will be visible east of a line from Omaha through Chattanooga to St. Augustine, or north of a line from Omaha through Colorado Springs to Phoenix, Arizona.

II. Annular, June 28. This will be a partial Eclipse everywhere in the United States, except in peninsular Florida. The Annular or ring phase will be visible in a belt extending from Tampa to Titusville, in southern Florida.

ASTRONOMICAL CALCULATIONS—Continued. PHASES OF VENUS.

Venus in the course of her orbit about the Sun presents all the phases of the Moon to us of the Earth. These phases are easily seen by the aid of a small telescope or good field glass, and are as follows:

- A. Fifteen days after superior conjunction, or May 5, 1909.
- B. At greatest elongation west, Sept. 14, 1908.
- C. When brightest as a morning star, Aug. 11, 1908.
- D. Just after inferior conjunction, or July 15, 1908.
- E. Fifteen days before superior conjunction, April 20, 1909.
- F. At greatest elongation east, April 26, 1908.
- G. When brightest as an evening star, May 29, 1908.
- H. Just before inferior conjunction, June 25, 1908.

The great difference in the apparent size or diameter of the Venus in A and E as compared with D and H is because of the vastly greater distance she is from us at her superior conjunction. When seen as a crescent as D or H she will be nearer to us by nearly the diameter of the earth's orbit than when appearing as A or E; when she appears like D or H she will be only about 25 million miles from us, and when like A or E she will be 160 million miles distant, or about six times as far. Her apparent diameter actually increases about six fold under these changed conditions.

ERAS OF TIME.

The Gregorian year 1908 corresponds to the following eras: From July 4th the 133d year of the Independence of the United States. The year 1326 (nearly) of the Mohammedan era begins Feb. 4. The year A. M. 8017 of the Greek Church begins Jan. 14 (O. S.). The year 4605 (nearly) of the Chinese era begins Feb. 2. The year 5668-9 (nearly) of the Jewish era begins Sept. 26 or at sunset Sept. 25. The year 2568 (nearly) of the Japanese era.

STANDARD TIME.

Standard meridians adopted in United States and Canada are exactly 15 degrees (=1 hour) of longitude apart; the mean local time of each meridian is used for a distance of 7½ degrees of longitude on each side; these boundaries are much varied by railroads.

Name.	West from Greenwich.	Nearest Place.
Intercolonial	60° = 4 hours	About 3½° east of Halifax.
Eastern	75° = 5 hours	Between N. Y. and Phila.
Central	90° = 6 hours	St. Louis & New Orleans.

THE RITUALISTIC CALENDAR.

The Ritualistic calendar changes each year. In general the following is the order in which colors are used on the altar in Ritualistic churches in the U. S.:

White, from Christmas Day to the Octave of the Epiphany and from the first service on Easter Day to the Vigil of Pentecost, except red on the days commemorative of martyred saints. It is also used on Trinity Sunday, the conversion of St. Paul, the Purification, the Annunciation, the feast of St. John Baptist, St. Michael, St. Luke, All Saints, and on days commemorative of saints who are not martyrs.

Red, from the first Vespers of Pentecost to the first Vespers of Trinity Sunday; on the Day of Holy Innocents, if on a Sunday, and on feasts of all martyred saints.

Violet, from Septuagesima to Easter Eve (Maundy Thursday); from Advent Sunday, the beginning of the Church Year, until Christmas Eve; on Ember days, except in Whitsun week, on Rogation Days, and on Holy Innocents, if on a Su' day.

Black, on Good Friday and at funerals.

HIGH WATER AT NEW YORK (GOVERNOR'S ISLAND).

The high water tables are from the book prepared and published by the United States Coast and Geodetic Survey at Washington. 0h. 00m. is midnight, and 12h. 00m. is noon. To change Eastern Standard Time to New York "Local Time," add 4 minutes. Eastern Standard Time is 5 hours slower than Greenwich Time. The height is reckoned at Governor's Island from level of average low water. All hours less than 12 are in the forenoon (a. m.), all greater are in the afternoon (p. m.), and when diminished by 12 give the times after noon; for instance, 13.47 is 3.47 p. m. ☾, new moon; ☽, 1st quar.; ☉, full moon; ☾, 3d quar.; E, moon on equator; N, S, moon farthest north or south of equator; A, P, moon in apogee or perigee.

Falkner Island Light, Conn.	+3	14	+0.7	Mayaguez, Porto Rico.	-0	03	-3.5

Application of the time differences will give 75th meridian time for all stations.

WEATHER AND TEMPERATURE FLAGS.

NOTE.—The display of weather and temperature flags, with the exception of the cold-wave flag, is now confined to rural districts and towns of 5,000 or less inhabitants; the display has been discontinued in places of greater population. The cold-wave flag will be displayed as heretofore.

When No. 4 is placed above Nos. 1, 2, or 3, it indicates warmer; when below, colder; when not displayed, temperature is expected to remain about stationary. The cold-wave flag is displayed when an unusual fall in temperature and to near or below freezing, is anticipated. During the late spring and early fall the cold-wave flag is used to indicate anticipated frosts. When No. 5 is displayed, No. 4 is omitted. When displayed on poles, the signals should be arranged to read downward; when displayed from horizontal supports, a small streamer should be attached to indicate the point from which the signals are to be read.

Storm and Hurricane Warnings.

1st.—A storm warning; red flag with black center. 2d.—When red pennant is hoisted above storm warning, winds are expected from northeast quadrant; when below, from the southeast quadrant. 3d.—When white pennant is hoisted above storm warning, winds are expected from the northwest quadrant; when below, from the southwest quadrant. 4th.—Hurricane warning and dangerous storms, two red flags with black centers, displayed one above the other. 5th.—Night storm warnings; a red light for easterly winds and a white light above a red light for westerly winds.

Storm Warning Stations.

BOROUGH OF BRONX STREET AND AVENUE DIRECTORY.

SPECIALLY COMPILED FOR THE EAGLE ALMANAC BY TROW DIRECTORY, PRINTING AND BOOKBINDING CO.

The following resolution, adopted by the Board of Aldermen March 21, 1882, and approved by the Mayor March 23, 1882, will explain the plan of numbering the streets north of Harlem River: That Willis Avenue be numbered, commencing at the Harlem River, and that said numbering run continuously through Willis, Melrose and Webster avenues. That all other avenues in the Twenty-third and Twenty-fourth Wards, having a generally northerly and southerly direction, be given the same number at the cross streets nearest their southern terminus as that on Willis, Melrose, and Webster avenues at the intersection of said cross street, and then numbered accordingly.

The prefix West is given to all cross streets in the Twenty-third and Twenty-fourth Wards lying west of Jerome av., which runs from Harlem River at Macomb's Dam Bridge to City line, and that the prefix East is given to all cross streets lying east of said avenue and the Harlem River.

The letters following names indicate position of the thoroughfare on the Almanac maps. Where there are no letters, the streets are in the annexed district, shown on the sixth page of the sectional maps.

COAL WEIGHING STATIONS.

The following scales have been designated by the Mayor as weighing stations for coal and coal vehicles under the provisions of Chap. 174 of the Laws of 1897: Under this law every purchaser of coal in New York City has the legal right to send any load of coal so purchased to any of the following scales to be weighed, provided that the scales shall be no more than one-half mile distant from the place of loading or the place of delivery.

The weighmaster is entitled to a fee of 15 cents a ton, which must be paid by the purchaser. After the loaded vehicle is weighed and the coal delivered to the purchaser, the driver must take the empty vehicle back to the scale to be weighed, and the weighmaster will then send a certificate.

Y. indicates the ward of that city. Air-line distances are reckoned from Brooklyn City Hall. Numbers at the left hand of names of places are for convenience of reference to them. A number following a place name, when preceded by the sign + indicates that the place is a part of or contiguous to the place indicated by the number; when the number is preceded by the sign = it indicates that the name belongs to the same place as that indicated by the number. The former town names are retained as aids in locating places occurring within the enlarged city limits of Greater New York.

ABBREVIATIONS: B'kn, Brooklyn; when this is followed by a number the ward is indicated; Fl., Flushing; Hemp., Hempstead; Jam., Jamaica; N'n, New York; N. Hemp., North Hempstead; O. B., Oyster Bay; Bab., Babylon; B'n, Brookhaven; E. H., Easthampton; Ham., Haverstraw; R. H., Riverhead; S. I., Shelter Island; S'tn, Smithtown; S. H., Southampton; S'old, Southold; Q'n's B., Queens Borough. Air-line distances are reckoned from Brooklyn City Hall. Numbers at the left hand of the names of places are for convenience of reference to them. A number immediately following a name when preceded by the sign + indicates that the place named is a part of a township to the place indicated by the number, when the number is preceded by the sign = it is a separately numbered name for the same place. In connection with places occurring in the Borough of Queens the old town names are retained as an aid in locating such places more definitely.

The Port of New York.

The Port of New York includes both banks of the Hudson River and both banks of the East River, north to the boundary line of New York City; all the shore of Staten Island; all the Kill van Kull; all the lower bay outside of a line drawn from about Hoffman's Island to the ship channel off Sandy Hook Point. Under act of Congress, May 7, 1894, these original limits were extended to include the City of Yonkers.

PARKS, DRIVES AND STATUES.

Brooklyn.

(Office, Litchfield Mansion, Prospect Park.)
The Park system of Brooklyn and Queens, under one park commissioner, consists of 43 parks, with an area of 1,663½ acres, 13 small gore parks, 4 playgrounds and 20 parkways, with total mileage of 4¼ miles. For officers and employees, see City Government chapter.

PARK STATUARY.

The statuary of Prospect Park includes the bronze figure of J. S. T. Stranahan, bronze busts of John Howard Payne, Thomas Moore, Washington Irving, Beethoven and Mozart. In Aug., 1895, a shaft was erected on the slope of Lookout Hill to the memory of the four hundred Maryland soldiers who defended the rear of the American Army upon its retreat after the Battle of Long Island. It was erected by the Baltimore Society of the Sons of the American Revolution, in conjunction with the Park Department.

The bronze statue of Major-Gen. Gouverneur Kemble Warren, near Memorial Arch, in the Park Plaza, was unveiled on July 4, 1896. The bronze statue of Abraham Lincoln, dedicated Oct. 21, 1869, is placed in the front part of the Flower Garden, overlooking the lake. It was paid for by popular subscription.

The bust of Mozart, in the Flower Garden, was unveiled Oct. 23, 1897. It is the gift of the "United Singers of Brooklyn" to the city, and was won by them as a prize in a saengerfest held in Philadelphia.

Immediately fronting the Park is the Plaza, and Soldiers and Sailors' Memorial Arch, erected to the memory of the soldiers and sailors who lost their lives in the war of the Union. The bas reliefs were prepared by Maurice J. Power, and show Lincoln and Grant on horseback, reviewing the army after the fall of Richmond. The arch in 1898 was further adorned by a bronze group on top, called the Quadriga, designed by Frederick MacMonnies; in 1900, two massive groups, one representing the Army and the other the Navy, for the sides.

At Gate 8, on the 9th av. side of Prospect Park, are two bronze panthers on pedestals. At Gate 4, at the Ocean Parkway entrance, are two specimens of bronze work in the shape of an athlete taming wild horses.

Other statues are scattered throughout the Borough. The Grant statue on Bedford, near Dean, was unveiled April 25, 1896, the gift of the Union League Club to the city.

A statue of Henry Ward Beecher stands in the center of the Park in front of the Borough Hall.

A statue of Alexander Hamilton graces the entrance to the Hamilton Club, Clinton and Remsen.

A statue of Gen. Fowler, a commander of the old 11th Regt., is in Fort Greene Park.

Skene monument, erected Jan., 1906, on a triangle at the north of Prospect Park Plaza, is a shaft of white marble, 13 feet high, 8 feet thick, surmounted by a bronze bust, three times life size, done by J. Massey Rhind, Bklyn.; cost $5,000.

The equestrian statue of Gen. Henry W. Slocum, designed by MacMonnies, heroic size, costing $30,000, was unveiled May 30, 1905, at Bedford and Eastern pkwy, President Roosevelt making an address.

An equestrian statue of Gen. George Washington, in the Plaza of the Williamsburg Bridge, Donated to the city by ex-Register James R. Howe, at a cost of $50,000. Henry Merwin Shady, sculptor. Unveiled Sept. 29, 1906.

Prison Ship Martyrs' Monument—To be erected in Fort Greene Park, of white granite, 200 ft. high, 9 ft. in diameter at base. Shaft surmounted by bronze urn, and will cost $172,000. To be completed during 1908. P. J. Carlin Co., contractors.

THE SHORE DRIVE.

Two arches connecting Shore Drive with 4th av. were completed in 1901, one under 2d av., the other under 3d av. The macadam road under arches connects the Shore Road with 4th av. and will eventually be carried through to Fort Hamilton av.

Dyker Beach Park has a frontage on Gravesend Bay. The marsh in the center will be dredged and a lagoon created.

Sunset Park is on a high plateau with views of the harbor, Staten Island and a large part of Brooklyn.

Institute Park on Flatbush av., which divides it from Prospect Park and part of the original purchase of Prospect Park, has been developed into a picturesque space. An artificial lake has been made, trees and shrubs planted and hills constructed. Chap. 637, Laws of 1906, provides for an astronomical observatory, and Chap. 618, laws of 1906, provides for a botanical garden, both to be erected in Institute Park.

Seaside Park is the only property the city has on the ocean; developed in 1902.

A new park will also be constructed in the Eastern District, to be called Greenport Park, the Board of Estimate having authorized the condemnation of a plot of land in the 14th, 15th and 17th Wards, bounded by Berry, Nassau av., Lorimer, Driggs av., Manhattan av., Leonard, Bayard, Union av. and North 12th, comprising 45 acres. The value of the land is estimated at $1,769,234.

The land used for playgrounds is within the territory to be acquired for the park, having been bought at private purchase.

BROOKLYN FOREST.

Brooklyn Forest is a natural woodland park, extending from the boundary of Highland Park as far as Richmond Hill, in Queens. It cost about $1,150,000. From its high points are obtained views of the Atlantic Ocean, Jamaica Bay and Long Island Sound. Roads have been made through and the main road is macadamized. The park drive leads into fine macadam roads connecting with Astoria, Flushing, the military reservation at Creedmoor, Whitestone, Queens and the north side of Long Island.

Highland Park, separated from Forest Park by cemetery property, adjoins the city reservoir. It contains many high eminences, and is a great pleasure ground for the East New York section.

Manhattan and Richmond Parks.

Office, Arsenal Bldg., Central Park.

MANHATTAN.

Bowling Green—The first park space in Manhattan was that now called Bowling Green Park. In 1732 this plot was leased by citizens for playing the game of bowls. In 1786 it was first laid out as a park.

City Hall Park constitutes a part of what was known in 17th century as "The Common Lands." At the close of the Revolutionary War improvements were begun. The city hall cornerstone was laid in 1803 and building used for the first time in 1811.

Madison Sq. Park was laid out as a Potters Field in 1794. The U. S. Govt. erected there an arsenal in 1806. Plans for improving the park were adopted in 1870.

Union Sq. Park was laid out in 1815 and enlarged in 1832, and plans for its improvement adopted in 1870.

Washington Sq. Park—In 1797 Potters Field was removed from Madison Sq. to Washington Sq. Park, later known as Washington Parade Ground. Plans for its improvement were adopted in 1870; carried out in 1871.

PARKS, DRIVES AND STATUES—MANHATTAN—Continued.

Tompkins Sq. Park was a parade ground in 1866. It was paved with concrete, but has been remodeled and laid out as a park.

Central Park—(For a history of this park see Eagle Almanac of 1907). The drives aggregate 9.452 miles and the bridle roads 5.503 miles; the walks, 31 miles. Its area is 843.019 acres. The following are some of the principal features: At 59th st. and 5th av. the Scholars' Gate, adorned by a bust of Von Humboldt, unveiled 1874. In the southwest part is the playground and carousel for children, and beyond is the common lawn of 16 acres. The Menagerie is in the southeast part, clustered around the old Arsenal Building. The mall is a broad promenade, a quarter of a mile long and 208 feet wide, bordered by double rows of elm trees and famous for the collection of statues, prominent among which are: Shakespeare, by J. Q. A. Ward, erected on the 300th anniversary of the poet's birth; Burns and Scott; the "Indian Hunter," by Ward; Filtz Greene Halleck, and a colossal Beethoven bust. Near by is the Music Pavilion. The Terrace, a sumptuous pile of richly carved masonry, and the Lake come next in view, and the famous Bethesda fountain, designed by Emma Stebbins and made in Munich. Beyond the Lake is the Ramble, 36 acres, passing a bust of Schiller, rustic cabins, gorges and waterfalls. Farther on is the Belvedere, a tower of stone; next are the city reservoirs. On the left is the American Museum of Natural History. Admission free, except on Mondays and Tuesdays (25c.). Open (free) Tuesday and Saturday evenings. Opposite the Obelisk and near 5th av. and 83d is the Metropolitan Museum of Art. Admission free except Mondays and Fridays (25c.); Monday and Friday evenings, 8 to 10.

The greenhouses, opened 1899, cost $55,000; located 300 feet south of E. 106th entrance.

Wm. H. Seward Park was opened to the public Oct. 17, 1903. This is the first park in Greater New York planned especially for playground and gymnasium features. It contains a splendid pavilion, shower baths, toilet facilities, etc.

Playgrounds during the summer are also maintained in Corlears Hook, Hamilton Fish, Tompkins Square, DeWitt Clinton, Hudson and Battery Parks.

DeWitt Clinton Park has maintained a children's farm garden since 1904.

The Bronx Parks.

Office, Zbrowski Mansion, Claremont Park.
 Van Cortlandt Park—Second in size in the borough, accessible by the N. Y. & Northern R. R. and several trolley lines running through Jerome av. and the Kingsbridge trolley. This tract was disputable ground during the Revolutionary War. The manorial residence of the Van Cortlandts was erected 1748 and was occupied by Washington and his staff twice during the war. Vault Hill is the burial place of the Van Cortlandt family. The parade ground consists of 150 acres, and has been opened to polo teams of Squadron A, N. G. The colonial mansion in front of the parade ground, in the care of the Colonial Dames, is used as a museum of Revolutionary relics. There are tennis courts, cricket fields, baseball diamonds and two 18-hole golf courses covering a lineal area of 5 miles. The statue of General Porter was unveiled in this park in 1902. A cairn was erected in the Indian Field to commemorate a battle in which the Stockbridge Indians helped the American forces during the Revolutionary War. A drinking fountain was erected near the Van Cortlandt station as a memorial of Algernon Sidney Sullivan. Van Cortlandt Lake comprises 25 acres.
 Bronx Park derives its name from Jonas Bronck, who purchased the land from the Indians about 1639. The Bronx River runs through it, containing several falls and cascades. The northerly section, about 250 acres, is set apart as a Botanical Garden, free to the public, under the jurisdiction of the New York Botanical Society, and cost over $1,000,000. The central part, about 150 acres, is under the jurisdiction of the Park Dept. The southeasterly section of the park, comprising 261 acres, is in charge of the Zoological Society. The plan comprises 55 different series of buildings, cages and ranges. Admittance free, except on Mondays and Thursdays, (25c.). Bronx Park is reached by the 3d av. elevated to 161st, with transfer to West Farms; to 177th, with transfer to Tremont av. trolley as far as Southern Boulevard; to 177th, with transfer to 3d av. as far as Fordham. The last route is to the northwest entrance.
 Pelham Bay Park, with its coastal indentations, its picturesque bays and inlets and open water front, is one of the most beautiful in the world. It contains large tracts of woodland trees that are centuries old. This park is being developed by carriage roads and foot-paths, has a fine new athletic and parade ground covering 120 acres, and an 18-hole golf course.

Crotona Park is being improved and a fine athletic field has been laid out in it, containing ball diamonds, tennis courts, etc.

Claremont Park lies on high ground, with an elevation of 100 feet in places. It is fully developed, with many tennis courts and baseball diamonds. It contains the old Zbrowski mansion, now used for offices of the Park Dept., acquired in 1888.

St. Mary's Park was formerly a portion of the estate of Gouverneur Morris, a prominent delegate to the convention which framed the Constitution of the United States. A large portion of the park is very high, commanding fine views of the East River, L. I. Sound, Harlem and Hudson Rivers. Acquired in 1888.

Franz Sigel Park (Cedar Park) lies on a high ridge overlooking the Harlem River. It was acquired June, 1885.

Macomb's Dam Park was acquired in 1899 and is divided into several sections by the streets. It is adjacent to the Harlem River and is the headquarters for many rowing clubs. Contains baseball diamonds and tennis courts and a quarter mile running track.

GRAND BOULEVARD AND CONCOURSE.

The Concourse, under the jurisdiction of the Borough President of the Bronx, is designed to provide connection between Manhattan and the park systems in the northern and eastern portions of the Bronx. The estimated cost of the work of construction was $1,052,153. The contract was let Aug. 20, 1902, the lowest bid being $1,011,322.50. The ground was broken for the work by President Haffen on Oct. 2, 1902, at the junction of Morris av. and 175th. The time estimated for its construction was 1,000 working days.

The entrance to the concourse, including Cedar (Franz Sigel) Park, is a stretch of land 3,300 ft. long and from 400 to 500 ft. wide, and extends from N. Y. Central and Hudson River R. R. to E. 164th; the route of the concourse is along the ridge between Jerome and Webster avs. It is about 4 miles long and 182 ft. wide, crossing a deep valley at E. 157th with a beautiful masonry arch. It will have a central driveway for fast driving 56 ft. in width, a macadamized driveway on each side 24 ft. in width for general traffic, and access to abutting property. There will be 20 ft. sidewalks on each side, and between the central and side driveways bicycle paths will be constructed. The spaces between the driveways and the paths will be planted with trees and sodded. While the present contract does not provide for the nine transverse roads, and the tunnel at E. 147th, there are six of these roads under contract; the nine roads and the tunnel will be commenced before the completion of the concourse, and will probably be completed when the concourse is.

The concourse is connected with Manhattan by means of the Madison av. and the 149th st bridge at Lenox av. through Mott and Walton avs. and also by means of E. 161st st and Central (Macomb's) bridge with 7th av. boulevard and Washington Heights. On the southerly end will be an elevated approach from 155th st or Central Bridge. The land has been acquired for this structure and the cost of approach will be about $500,000.

A further connection with 7th av. is proposed by the City Improvement Commission by means of a bridge over the Harlem River and a viaduct from the Harlem River to Mott av. across Cedar Park.

Helicon Hall.

Helicon Hall, Englewood, N. J., the home of Upton Sinclair's Co-operative Colony, burned March 16, 1907, flames following an explosion, with one death and twelve injured, temporarily broke up the colony home. The Hall was purchased in October of 1906 for $65,000 by Mr. Sinclair, as a home for a colony embodying his ideas as a socialistic editor and writer, and was purchased from the profits of his book entitled "The Jungle," which was widely read. Ten thousand words of a second book were consumed in the fire, as were several manuscripts of other writers of note in socialistic circles.

POSTAL REGULATIONS.

Domestic matter is divided into four classes, governed as follows:

1st—Embraces letters, postal cards, post cards, all matter wholly or partly in writing or sealed against inspection, postage 2 cents per ounce or fraction. Limit of weight, 4 pounds. Mail should be fully prepaid to insure rapid handling and quick delivery.

Postal cards issued by the Post Office Department may bear written, printed or other additions as follows: (a). The face of the card may be divided by a vertical line placed approximately one-third of the distance from the left end of the card; the space to the left of the line to be used for a message, etc., but the space to the right for the address only. (b). Addresses upon postal cards  may be either written, printed or affixed thereto at the option of the sender. (Act of July 12, 1876, ch. 179, 1 Supp., 110). (c). Very thin sheets of paper may be attached to the card on condition that they completely adhere thereto. Such sheets may bear both writing and printing. (d). Advertisements, illustrations or writing may appear on the back of the card and on the left third of the face.

The addition to a postal card of matter other than as above authorized will subject the card, when sent in the mails, to postage according to the character of the message—at the letter rate if wholly or partly in writing or the third-class rate if entirely in print. In either case the postage value of the stamp impressed upon the card will not be impaired. Postal cards must be treated in all respects as sealed letters, except that when undeliverable to the addressee they may not be returned to the sender. Postal cards bearing particles of glass, metal, mica, sand, tinsel, or other similar substances, are unmailable, except when enclosed in envelopes with proper postage attached, or when treated in such manner as will prevent the objectionable substances from being rubbed off or injuring persons handling the mails. (Went into effect August 1, 1907.)

2d—Newspapers and periodicals in their entirety which have been entered as "Second Class Matter." Parts of publications are third class matter. Postage 1 cent for each 4 ounces or fraction thereof when mailed by other than publisher; postage to be fully prepaid or will be disposed of as waste. No limit of weight.

3d—Books, sections of periodicals, newspaper clippings, circulars and matter wholly in print, blue prints, proof sheets, corrected proof sheets and manuscript copy accompanying the same, engravings, lithographs, seeds, cuttings, bulbs, roots, scions and plants. Also facsimile copies made by a mechanical process such as the printing press, electric pen, mimeograph, hektograph, copygraph, etc., provided they are mailed at the post office window in the minimum number of twenty identical copies separately addressed. If mailed elsewhere or in less number, first class postage is required. A circular may have in writing therein the name of the addressee or sender or date; any other additions render it subject to first class postage. Postage 1 cent each 2 ounces or fraction thereof. Limit of weight, 4 pounds, except single books. Postage must be fully prepaid and great care exercised not to add any written words or figures except such as are permissible.

4th—Unsealed packages or merchandise and all matter not embraced in the first, second or third class, and which from its nature will not destroy or damage the mails or injure the persons handling it. Postage, 1 cent an ounce or fraction thereof. Must be fully prepaid. Limit of weight, 4 pounds. Permissible written additions: Name of sender and address and occupation; but only when preceded by the word "from" and any marks, names, numbers or letters for purpose of description. Sealed packages and other written additions render it liable to first class postage.

FORWARDING MAIL MATTER.

Matter of the first class can be forwarded until it reaches the addressee.

All other classes require prepayment of the original postage before forwarding.

WHAT CANNOT BE MAILED.

The following are unmailable: Liquids, ardent, vinous, spirituous or malt, or those liable to explosion or spontaneous ignition or combustion by shock or jar, inflammable oils, poisons, explosives, animals, alive or dead (stuffed natural specimens excepted); explosive or poisonous powders, matches and other articles easily inflammable, fresh fruit and vegetables liable to decomposition, insects (except queen bees and their attendant bees and dried insects when safely secured), substances exhaling offensive odor, all other articles (not securely packed or cased, and then safely packed in hard wood or metal boxes with screw lids or secured by clasp or slide, strictly conforming to methods prescribed by the P. O. Dept.) which are liable to destroy, deface or damage other mail matter, or to harm the person of any one in the postal service; obscene or indecent books, prints, writings or papers; all letters upon the envelopes of which, or postal cards upon which, indecent, lewd, obscene or lascivious delineations, epithets, terms or language are written or printed; all matters concerning lotteries, so called gift concerns, or similar enterprises offering prizes, or concerning schemes devised or intended to defraud the public or for the purpose of obtaining money under false pretenses, and all mail matter not addressed to a post office or to no particular person, firm, company or publication.

CAUTIONARY NOTICE.

All valuable mail matter should be registered. Each piece of mail matter should be fully prepaid with stamps affixed before mailing, as only first class mail matter is forwarded when short paid, when one full rate has been prepaid.

DOMESTIC RATES APPLY.

The domestic rates apply to the United States, Porto Rico, Guam, Philippine Islands, Shanghai (China), Tutulia, Cuba, *Canada, *Mexico, Hawaii, Republic of Panama and the Panama Canal Zone.

*See exceptions which follow.

FOREIGN.

Mail matter addressed to countries in the Universal Postal Union is subject to the following rates: Letters and sealed packages, 5 cents each ounce or fraction thereof, and 3 cents for each additional oz. or fraction thereof, if prepaid, and double that rate if not prepaid. Postal and private mail cards, 2 cents each.

Printed matter of every kind, commercial papers, samples of merchandise, 1 cent each 2 ounces or fraction thereof, but at least 5 cents must be paid on each packet of commercial papers and 2 cents on each packet of samples of merchandise.

Mail schedules showing the name of steamer, hour of closing of the mail at the General Post Office, etc., can be found in the corridors of the General Post Office or any of its stations.

FOREIGN MAILS VIA RED "D" LINE.

Per steamers (closing as scheduled) close at the General P. O., 9:30 A.M. A supplementary close is made at the dock at Roberts' Stores each sailing day at 11:45 A.M. A clerk from the Brooklyn P. O. is in attendance, who provides all information and has stamps for sale. These steamers carry mail for Venezuela, Curacao, W. I.; Porto Rico and specially addressed points in the U. S. of Colombia.

CUBA, MEXICO, CANADA AND REPUBLIC OF PANAMA.

Matter mailed in U. S. addressed to Mexico is subject to the same postage rates and conditions as that addressed in the U. S. except that articles of miscellaneous merchandise (4th class matter), in unsealed packages not sent as bona fide trade samples are required to be sent by "Parcels Post," and that the following articles are absolutely excluded from the mails:

All sealed packages other than letters in the usual form; all packages (including packages of 3d class matter which weigh more than 4 pounds 6 ounces), except such as are sent by parcels post; publications which violate any copyright law of Mexico.

Samples of mdse.: Packages not in excess of 4 ounces, 2 cents. Packages in excess of 4 ounces, for each 2 ounces or fraction thereof, 1 cent. Limit of weight, 12 ounces.

Mail matter in U. S. addressed to Canada and Cuba subject to same postage rates and conditions as addressed for delivery in U. S., except that the following articles are absolutely excluded from the mails:

All packages closed against inspection and not in usual form of a letter; all packages, except single volumes of printed books, which weigh more than 4 pounds 6 ounces; publications which violate any copyright law of Canada, Cuba or Republic of Panama.

Unsealed packages of "commercial papers" shall be admitted to the mails dispatched from this country to Mexico and Canada at same rate and subject to same conditions as to weight and dimensions as apply to commercial papers in mails dispatched to other countries of Universal Postal Union.

Over $70 to $80.....30c. Over $30 to $40.....20c. Over $80 to $90.....35c. Over $40 to $50.....25c. Over $90 to $100.....50c.

The maximum amount for which a money order may be drawn payable in the U. S. or any foreign country is $100; no limitation to number of orders that may be issued, in one day to remit, in favor of same payee.

DOMESTIC MATTER—REGISTERED MAIL.

Any article of the 1st, 2d, 3d or 4th class mail matter may be registered at any Post Office in the United States. The fee on registered matter, domestic or foreign, is 8 cents for each letter or parcel, to be affixed in stamps, in addition to the postage. Full prepayment of postage and fee is required. Two or more letters or parcels addressed to, or intended for, the same person cannot be tied or otherwise fastened together and registered as one.

A return receipt signed by the addressee and showing delivery is returned to the sender of each domestic registered letter or parcel.

The Postal authorities give an indemnity for domestic registered mail lost in transit up to $25. At the main office mail matter can be registered at all hours, except Sunday, from 8 A.M. Monday to 10 P.M. Saturday. At carrier stations from 8 A.M. to 9 P.M.

Letter carriers will register letters at residences as safely as if they were taken to the Post Office. The conditions are that they must (1) be in good order and inclosed in a secure envelope; (2) bear the name and address of sender; (3) bear the name and Post Office address of the person to whom they are to be delivered; and (4) the postage and registry fee must be prepaid either with stamps attached to the letter or in money to the letter carrier, who will write the amount in the receipt which he gives you. The carrier cannot wait for you to prepare your letter, or to make change, or engage in conversation. If you give him too much money for postage, it will be returned to you direct from the Post Office, but not if the postage and fee are paid in stamps.

FOREIGN MAIL MATTER.

1. Any article of mail matter may be registered, provided that when presented for registration the postage thereon be fully prepaid by postage stamps affixed, also the registration fee, which is uniformly 8 cents.

2. Name and address in full of sender must be indorsed on or written across the end of the letter or article before it can be registered.

3. The senders of registered articles may obtain assurance of their receipt by persons addressed by indorsing them with the words, "Return receipt requested."

SPECIAL DELIVERY SYSTEM.

A special 10 cent stamp, when attached to a letter or package (in addition to the lawful postage), will entitle such to immediate delivery at destination within the carrier limit of a free delivery office between the hours of 7 A.M. and 11 P.M., by messengers, and on Sundays in Brooklyn from 8 to 10 A.M. and 2 to 11 P.M. in the General P. O. district.

On and after July 1, 1907, when, in addition to the stamps required to transmit any letter or package of mail matter through the mails, there shall be attached to the envelope or covering 10 cents worth of ordinary stamps of any denomination, with "special delivery," or their equivalent written or printed on the envelope or covering, under such regulations as the Postmaster General may prescribe, the said package shall be handled, transmitted and delivered in all respects as though it bore a regulation "special delivery" stamp.

Short paid second, third and fourth class matter, to which is attached a special delivery stamp, cannot be forwarded.

Special delivery matter is forwarded by ordinary scheduled mails only, but secures immediate delivery at office of destination during prescribed hours. Inquiry should be made at the Post Office regarding delivery of out of town mails on Sundays.

PRIVATE MAILING CARDS.

An act of Congress, approved May 19, 1898, authorized the transmission in the mails of private cards bearing written messages. The law in brief states that it shall be lawful to transmit by mail, at the postage rate of one cent apiece, payable by stamps to be affixed by sender, and under such regulations as the Postmaster General may prescribe, written messages on private mailing cards, such cards to be sent openly in the mails to be approximately of same form, quality and weight as the stamped postal card now in use in U. S.

To be entitled to such privileges users of mailing cards must conform to these rules:

1. (a) A "post card" must be an unfolded piece of cardboard not exceeding 9 by 14 centimeters (approximately 3.9-16 by 5.9-16 inches), nor less than 7 by 10 centimeters (approximately 2.8 by 4 inches). (b) In form, quality and weight of paper must be substantially like the Government postal card. (c) Any color not interfering with a legible address and postmark. (d) It may or may not bear near the top of the face the words "Post Card." (e) Face of card may be divided by a vertical line; left half to be used for a message, etc.; that to the right for the address only. (f) Very thin sheets of paper may be attached to card, on condition that they completely adhere thereto; such sheets may bear both writing and printing. (g) Advertisements and illustrations may appear on back of card and left half of face.

2. Cards without cover, conforming to foregoing conditions, are transmissible in domestic mails (including the possessions of the United States) and to Cuba, Canada, Mexico, Republic of Panama, and the U. S. postal agency at Shanghai, China, at postage rate of 1 cent each.

3. When post cards are prepared by printers and stationers for sale, they should bear in upper right hand corner of face an oblong diagram containing the words "Place postage stamp here," and at bottom of space to the right of the vertical dividing line, the words "This space for the address."

4. Cards which do not conform to the conditions prescribed by these regulations are, when sent in the mails, chargeable with postage according to character of message—at letter rate, if wholly or partly in writing, or at third class rate, if entirely in print.

5. Cards bearing particles of glass, metal, mica, sand, tinsel or other similar substances, are unmailable, except when inclosed in envelopes, with proper postage attached, or when treated in such manner as will prevent the objectionable substance from being rubbed off or injuring persons handling the mails.

Numbered Stations of the New York Post Office are established in order to provide the residents in their vicinity with facilities for:

1. Purchase of postage stamps, postal cards, stamped envelopes.

2. The procuring of money orders payable in the United States. International money orders may be obtained at all Branch Post Office Stations.

3. The registration of letters and parcels addressed to Post Offices in the United States or in foreign countries. Packages of merchandise ought not to be presented here for registration (except singly or in small quantities), but may be registered at the General P. O. or any branch office.

4. The mailing (in limited quantities only) of newspapers and packages too large to be deposited in letter boxes. Packages of merchandise in quantities from dealers or others cannot be received at Sub-Stations, but should be taken to the Gen. Post Office or Branch Post Office Sta. Packages will be received (singly or in limited numbers only) for dispatch by Parcels Post to countries with which the United States has Parcels Post Conventions. Letters may, but need not, be deposited in numbered stations.

Sage Foundation.

The Sage Foundation, a charity founded by Mrs. Russell Sage, who sets aside $10,000,000 for its maintenance, was announced March 12, 1907. Its object is the improvement of social and living conditions in the United States. The means to that end will include research, publication, education, the establishment and maintenance of charitable and beneficial activities, agencies and institutions, and the aid of any such activities, agencies and institutions already established. The Board of Trustees are: R. W. De Forest, C. H. Dodge, D. C. Gilman, J. M. Glenn, Miss Helen M. Gould, Mrs. W. B. Rice and Miss Louisa L. Schuyler. The legislative bill provides that only the income of the fund shall be used. Headquarters are at 30 Broad, Mhnt.

Banking Power of the World.

In the annual report for 1906 the Comptroller of the Currency gives the banking power of the world as $38,414,000,000.

Since 1890 the increases have been:

	Amount.	Per cent.
United States	$11,312,000,000	219.6
All foreign countries.....	11,117,000,000	102.6

Total increase

These figures show that in the sixteen years the United States has surpassed by $195,000,000 the increase in banking power of all the rest of the world.

A comparison of the combined banking statements of the banks of the United States with the combined banking statements of all the rest of the world shows:

	United States.	Rest of the world.
Capital	$1,640,000,000	$1,365,000,000
Surplus	1,532,000,000	587,000,000
Deposits	12,719,000,000	15,888,000,000
Circulation	511,000,000	4,112,000,000
This gives the United States a total of $16,462,000,000, and all others combined, $21,952,000,000.

The Standard Oil Co. Fine.

A fine of $29,240,000, the largest in the history of American criminal jurisprudence, was assessed against the Standard Oil Company, Aug. 3, 1907, by Judge K. M. Landis, in the U. S. District Court for the State of Indiana, for violations of the Elkins law, approved Feb. 19, 1903. The case is to be taken to the U. S. Court of Appeals during the January term, 1908.

Operation of the Mortgage Tax Law (1907).

During the year ended June 30, 1907, when the Mortgage law ceased to be operative, there were recorded 147,745 original mortgages, and 6,070 statements were filed, making the total 153,815. The tax collected was $4,950,248.35, with $1,534.39 refunds; expenses of collection, $64,677.96, leaving net amount $4,834,036. By counties, the amounts collected were as follows: New York, $2,903,086.77; Kings, $939,583.70; Queens, $206,757.52; Westchester, $150,820.93; Erie, $114,590.39; Nassau, $67,409.92; Monroe, $53,595.26; Onondaga, $43,421.90; Richmond, $40,896.70; Orange, $33,833.38; Suffolk, $29,762.01; Niagara, $23,799.86; Schenectady, $21,451.90; Albany, $21,564.57; Oneida, $21,085.70.

The amounts were divided equally between the state and the counties.

FISH, GAME AND FOREST LAWS OF NEW YORK.

The laws for the protection, preservation and propagation of birds, fish and wild animals in the State were codified and re-enacted by the Legislature in 1892, amended in 1893 and 1894, revised and re-enacted and consolidated with the forest laws in 1895, and further amended in the succeeding years. They constitute chap. 31 of general laws. They are also known as chap. 20 of the laws of 1890, as amended by the Legislature each year since.

A law makes catching and killing beaver a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of $100; the taking, killing or exposing for sale of all land turtles, or tortoises, including the box turtle and the wood turtle, a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of $10.

An important law states that any person owning land which he reserves as private fishing premises, if stocked by the State at any time since April 17, 1896, from any of the hatcheries, hatching stations, or by fish furnished at expense of the State, shall remain open to the public to fish therein.

Another law states that: No trout of any kind, salmon trout or land locked salmon shall be taken away from waters of this State to stock a private pond or stream.

The law in its application to fresh water also provides for the licensing of nets. If nets are licensed and have a tag on the protectors and foresters can identify owner of net illegally used, and if the tag is missing the net can be destroyed.

The law prohibits the polluting of streams or taking fish by drawing off water or by dynamite, or from a stream to stock a private pond or stream. No fishing through the ice in waters inhabited by trout or lake trout, except Lake Ontario and Erie, during the closed season for trout.

Game.

Game must not be transported out of State.
Deer—Close season Nov. 1 to Sept. 15, both inclusive. Fawns in spotted coat shall not be taken or possessed at any time. Dogs cannot be used in hunting, and may be killed if found in the deer forest. Not more than two deer may be taken. Venison shall not be possessed or sold from Nov. 25 to Sept. 15, both inclusive. Can be accepted by common carrier for transportation up to midnight of Nov. 3, according to the construction put upon the recently amended law by the State Game Dept. Only one carcass can be transported, and must be accompanied by owner; and not more than two carcasses can be thus transported in one year; but this does not apply to the head, feet or skin of deer carried separately. Traps, salt licks and other devices, also crusting and yarding, are illegal. Jacking is prohibited. Deer must not be taken while in water and must not be taken between sunset and sunrise. Close season in Orange and Sullivan counties, Nov. 16 to Oct. 31, both inclusive. On Long Island deer may be taken on the first two Wednesdays and first two Fridays after the first Tuesday of Nov. Dogs may be used there on those days only. Possession of venison in the forests of Suffolk County on other days is presumptive evidence of violation of the law. Deer which have escaped from private premises may be taken by owner.

Moose, Elk, Caribou and Antelope—No open season.

Bear—Wild black bear shall not be killed, taken or possessed from July 1 to Sept. 30, both inclusive. If a wild black bear is taken or killed during the open season notice must be filed within sixty days in the office of the Forest, Fish and Game Commission, giving date killed, place where killed or taken, and the sex and approximate weight. Essex and Lewis counties are excepted from the provisions of this section.

Mink—The close season for mink, skunk and muskrat in Broome, Cattaraugus, Cayuga, Chautauque, Chemung, Chenango, Cortland, Delaware, Genesee, Greene, Jefferson, Livingston, Madison, Oneida, Onondaga, Ontario, Oswego, Otsego, Seneca, St. Lawrence, Wayne, Washington, Schoharie and Wyoming counties from May 1 to Oct. 31, both inclusive. Muskrat houses shall not be injured or destroyed at any time.

Foxes—Close season for foxes in Chautauque, Chemung, Genesee, Greene, Livingston, Wayne, Washington and Wyoming counties from May 1 to Sept. 30, both inclusive. The provisions relating to mink, skunk, muskrat and foxes, except those relating to muskrat houses, do not apply to the acts of an owner or possessor of lands thereon, or to the territory of a city or incorporated village.

Hares and rabbits—Close season in Albany, Columbia, Genesee, Monroe, Orleans and Wyoming counties from Dec. 16 to Sept. 15, both inclusive; in Ulster and Livingston counties, from Jan. 16 to Sept. 30, both inclusive; in Orange county, from Dec. 16 to Oct. 15, both inclusive; in Broome and Cortland counties, from Dec. 1 to Sept. 15, both inclusive; in Rockland county, from Dec. 31 to Oct. 31, both inclusive; in Herkimer and Oneida counties, from Feb. 15 to Sept. 15, both inclusive; in Sullivan, Steuben, Rensselaer, Madison and Erie counties, from Feb. 16 to Sept. 30, both inclusive; in Schenectady, Fulton and Greene counties, from Feb. 1 to Oct. 31, both inclusive; in Dutchess county, from Dec. 1 to Oct. 15, both inclusive; in Richmond county, from Dec. 16 to Oct. 31, both inclusive; and in the county of Westchester, from Dec. 1 to Oct. 31, both inclusive, in which two last named counties hares and rabbits shall not be taken when snow is on the ground. Hares and rabbits shall not be hunted with ferrets in any county except Fulton and Hamilton. Nothing in this section shall prevent the owner of inclosed or occupied farm lands from taking hares or rabbits on his own premises at any time to prevent their injuring property.

Black and gray squirrels shall not be taken, possessed or sold from Dec. 1 to Sept. 15, both inclusive.

Black and gray squirrels, special—In Greene county, from Dec. 16 to Sept. 30; in Rensselaer, Sullivan and Dutchess counties, from Dec. 1 to Sept. 30, both inclusive; in Orange county, from Dec. 16 to Oct. 15, both inclusive; in Chautauque county, from Dec. 1 to Oct. 15, both inclusive; and in Saratoga county from Nov. 1 to Sept. 15, both inclusive. On Long Island, Gardiners Island and Robins Island, the close season on woodcock is Jan. 1 to July 31, both inclusive.

Grouse and woodcock taken in this State shall not be sold or offered for sale within this State, or carried without the State, but woodcock and grouse taken from without the State may be sold if a bond has first been filed with the commission.

Quail—Close season from Dec. 1 to Oct. 31, both inclusive.

Quail—Close season, special. No open season before 1908 in Richmond County. Close season in Rensselaer County, from Dec. 1 to Sept. 30, both inclusive; in Orange and Ulster counties, from Dec. 16 to Oct. 15, both inclusive; in Cattaraugus and Chautauque counties, from Dec. 1 to Oct. 15, both inclusive; on

Long Island, from Jan. 1 to Oct. 1; on Gardiners Island, from Feb. 1 to Oct. 14, both inclusive, and may be taken on Robins Island as long as it remains the property of the Robins Island Club.

Quail must not be taken in Delaware, Greene, Orange, Schoharie, Sullivan and Ulster counties for the purpose of selling or offering to sell the same; nor shall any person sell or offer for sale any such quail.

Woodcock, grouse and quail shall not be possessed in close season except in month of Dec., and if possessed in Dec. it is presumptive evidence that they were unlawfully taken.

Woodcock, grouse and quail shall not be transported within this State or into the State from a point without, less than 25 miles from the State line, unless accompanied by the actual owner thereof, and no person shall transport or accompany more than 36 grouse or 36 woodcock in any calendar year, or more than 12 of either kind at one time.

Woodcock, grouse and quail in Orange County—No person shall take in Orange County more than 12 woodcock, 12 grouse and 12 quail at any one time or on any one day, nor shall any person take in such county in any one calendar year more than 36 of either variety of such birds.

Pheasants—No open season (except in Suffolk and Dutchess counties) before 1910. In Suffolk and Dutchess counties they must not be taken or possessed between Jan. 1 and Oct. 31, both inclusive.

Forest Law.

All the wild or forest land now owned or hereafter acquired in the counties of St. Lawrence, Franklin, Clinton, Essex, Warren, Washington, Hamilton, Herkimer, Oneida, Lewis, Greene, Ulster, Sullivan and Delaware,

Fulton and Saratoga, constitute the Forest Preserve, and cannot be sold or leased nor the timber disposed of.

The Adirondack Park includes all lands now owned or hereafter acquired by the State within the county of Hamilton; towns of Newcomb, Minerva, Schroon, North Hudson, Keene, North Elba, St. Armand and Wilmington, in Essex county; the towns of Harletstown, Santa Clara, Altamont, Waverly and Brighton, in Franklin county; the towns of Webb and Wilmut, in Herkimer county; the towns of Hopkinton, Colton, Clifton and Fine, in St. Lawrence county; the towns of Johnsburgh, Stony Creek and Thurman, and the Islands in Lake George, in Warren county. Such park shall forever be reserved and maintained for the free use of all the people. Chapter 304, Laws of 1904, enlarged the boundaries of the park at certain points and decreased it also by the exclusion of farming lands along the border in certain towns. The park now includes Township 10, Franklin county, and about 8,000 acres in the northeast corner of Saratoga county.

By a law enacted by the Legislature of 1904, the State undertakes to establish a State park in the Catskill mountains. It will comprise about 675,000 acres, situated in the counties of Greene, Ulster, Sullivan and Delaware.

All that part of the river St. Lawrence within the State, with the islands and such lands along the shore as are now owned by or shall hereafter be acquired by the State, has been constituted an international park, known as the "St. Lawrence reservation."

It is a misdemeanor to cut or carry away any tree, bark or timber on the forest preserve, and in addition the person cutting any timber thereon shall forfeit $10 for every tree cut or carried away by him.

The game protectors may, without warrant, arrest any person found upon the forest preserve violating any of the laws for the protection of game.

Fire wardens, appointed, shall take necessary measures for the extinction of forest fires, and may call on any person in their districts for assistance, and a person refusing may be fined $10.

THE WATER FRONT.

Brooklyn.

The water frontage of Brooklyn, including Newtown Creek (3 miles), Manhattan, Queens, Richmond and the Bronx—less the small islands—measures 341.22 linear miles.

From Newtown Creek south are passed successively large establishments for almost every class of industries, the piers of the Williamsburg Bridge, Wallabout Market shipping basin, railroad freight terminals, the Navy Yard water front, the piers of the Manhattan and Brooklyn Bridges. The ferries to Manhattan start from ft. of Greenpoint av., Grand st., B'way, Main, Fulton, Montague sts. and Atlantic av. Going north the Hunter's Point Ferry, Penn. R. R. tunnel, Astoria Ferry, Blackwell's Island Bridge and the proposed connecting line of the Pennsylvania Railroad.

Adjoining Hamilton av. is the Atlantic Basin, under control of N. Y. Dock Co. The largest vessel can enter it in any stage of tide. It covers an area of 40 acres, included between Piers No. 33, 1,250 ft. long by 166 wide, and No. 38, 880 ft. long by 165 ft. wide, with railroad tracks running along each.

The Erie Basin covers 161 acres and is protected by a mile of breakwater. It contains 2 large covered piers and 8 smaller open piers, stores for grain having capacity of over 3,000,000 bu. In the basin are received the great ocean rafts of timber, as well as sawed lumber. 500 to 700 canal boats seek winter protection in this basin, the crews and families of which form a colony of over 2,000 persons.

The dry docks here are among the largest in the United States. From the ft. of Court and Clinton sts. to 28th st. are various vessel building firms. In succession follow land and water front between 36th and 38th sts., taken by city for a public market, E. R. T. R. R. Co. property; the 39th St. Ferry approach, the Naval Reserve Corps, land for armory (51st to 52d st.); the terminal for L. I. R. R. at 63d to 65th sts. From 65th, at the foot of the bluff, on to Gravesend Bay runs the Bay Ridge parkway. At 84th st. is the Crescent Athletic Club House; further on the U. S. Govt. reservation and defenses of Ft. Hamilton; Bath Beach, Bensonhurst, Sea Gate, W. Brighton, Brighton Beach, Manhattan Beach, Pt. Breeze, Sheephead Bay, Bergen Beach and Canarsie, on Jamaica Bay, and Rockaway Beach, Arverne, Wave Crest, Isle of Wight and Far Rockaway take up the bay and ocean shore to the extreme eastern limit of N. Y. City, making a total water front of 33 miles.

Manhattan.

Beginning at Battery Park going along the shore line of the Hudson River are: The Aquarium, headquarters of the fireboats, the Dock Dept., occupying Pier A, Washington Market at ft. of Fulton st. W. Washington Market at ft. of 12th st. The piers number from 1 to

91. Between Perry and Gansevoort sts. are the landing piers of foreign steamships. Between Bloomfield and W. 23d sts. is the Chelsea Improvement. At Barrow st., W. 51st st. and W. 125th st. are recreation piers. Between W. 153d and W. 155th sts. are Trinity Cemetery and Audubon Park. Ft. Washington and Ft. Washington Park are between W. 170th and W. 185th sts. At W. 219th st. is the mouth of the Spuyten Duyvil Creek and the Harlem Ship Canal, which connects the Hudson and Harlem rivers. Beyond, Mt. St. Vincent, 15 miles from the City Hall, is the northern limit of the city. The ferries are at ft. of Liberty, Courtlandt, Barclay, Chambers, Franklin, Desbrosses, Christopher, 23d, 24th, 42d, 70th sts.

Following the East River shore line from the southeast corner of Battery Park are located the ferry to Liberty Isl., the Barge office, a department of the customs, a bureau of immigration, office of the U. S. Marine Hospital, ship news office and ferry to Governor's Isl., the ferries to Staten Isl. and 39th st., South Bkln. and the ferries to Hamilton av. and Atlantic av., South Bkln. At Wall and Fulton sts. are ferries to Bkln. Between Fulton and Beekman sts. is the principal wholesale fish market of the city. At Roosevelt st. are the western piers of the first Bkln. Bridge. At Pike slip are the west piers of "Manhattan," or the third East R. bridge. Corlears Hook Park is between Jackson and Corlears sts. Between Broome and Delancey sts. is the anchorage and west piers of the second bridge to Bkln., completed in 1903. E. 26th to 28th sts. is Bellevue Hospital. At the head of L. I. Sound is Ft. Morris; two miles beyond the Bronx R. R. the limit of city improvements, empties into L. I. Sound. At Throggs Neck, farther on, is located Ft. Schuyler. Pelham Manor is the northern and eastern limits of Greater New York. From there the city line takes its course across the Sound to Long Island, at Little Neck, on the east side of Little Neck Bay. On the western side of the bay is Willets Point. Whitestone, College Point, Flushing, North Beach, Steinway, Astoria and Ravenswood line the shore to L. I. City.

Staten Island.

St. George is the municipal ferry terminal between Mhnt. and Staten Island. The U. S. lighthouse establishment is at Tompkinsville. At Stapleton is building a second landing for the municipal ferry. Then comes the quarantine boarding station and the fortifications on the west side of the Narrows. South of the Narrows is So. Beach, a seaside resort. Adjoining is Midland Beach. Various manufacturing industrial plants follow. At the northwest point of the island is the abutment of the Arthur Kill's railroad bridge, which connects the State of New Jersey and New York. Five miles eastward is Sailors' Snug Harbor, and further on New Brighton. The circuit of the island water front is 51 miles.

POPULATION OF NEW YORK CITY.

New York City, as constituted prior to the act of consolidation, effective Jan. 1, 1898, had a population in 1890 of 1,515,301, compared with a population in 1900 of 3,437,202, showing an apparent increase of 1,921,901, or 126.8 per cent.

In 1890 the city comprised all of what is now Manhattan and greater part of what is now the Bronx, but under the act of consolidation Kings Co., Richmond Co., the larger part of Queens Co. and a small part of Westchester Co. became a part of the city.

Manhattan comprises that part of the old city south of the Harlem River, this area being known formerly as Manhattan Island.

Bronx was formed from that part of the old City of New York lying north of the Harlem River and the small part of Westchester Co. annexed under the act of consolidation. All of this area was at one time a part of Westchester Co., but in 1875 the towns of Morrisania, West Farms and King's Bridge were annexed to New York; under consolidation, Jan. 1, 1898, all of the town of Westchester and parts of the towns of Eastchester and Pelham became a part of the city.

The towns of Flatbush, Flatlands, Gravesend and New Utrecht were absorbed by the City of Brooklyn in 1894, Flatbush becoming the 29th Ward, New Utrecht the 30th Ward, Gravesend the 31st Ward, Flatlands the 32d Ward. The city thus became coextensive with Kings Co., and on Jan.

1, 1898, Brooklyn became one of the five boroughs of what is now the City of New York.

Richmond County, or Staten Island, became the Borough of Richmond.

Queens Borough was organized at the same time from what was Long Island City, the towns of Flushing, Jamaica and Newtown, and a small portion of the town of Hempstead, all of which were civil divisions of Queens Co. The remaining towns of the county, Oyster Bay and North Hempstead, together with the greater part of the town of Hempstead, were taken to form the new county of Nassau. The 1st Ward of Queens Borough comprises what was formerly Long Island City, the 2d Ward what was formerly Newtown town, the 3d Ward what was formerly Flushing town, the 4th Ward what was formerly Jamaica town and the 5th Ward that part of the town of Hempstead now within the limits of the borough of Queens.

It is impossible to state definitely the population in 1890 of that part of the town of Hempstead, Queens Co., which became a part of Queens Borough, and of the parts of the towns of Eastchester and Pelham, Westchester Co., which became a part of Bronx Borough, but in the following is shown the estimated population for the City of New York, as now constituted, and in detail for each borough of the city, from 1790 to 1900:

Boroughs.	1900	1890	1880	1870	1860	1850	1840	1830	1820	1810	1800	1790

The preceding table shows that the area comprised within the present limits of the City of New York had an estimated population of 49,401 in 1790, which had grown to 696,115 in 1850, representing an increase of 646,714, or 1,309.1 per cent. The population of the present City of New York had grown to 2,507,414 in 1890, or an increase since 1850 of 1,811,299, or 260.2 per cent. Since 1890 there has been an increase of 929,788, or 37.1 per cent., the population in 1900 being 3,437,202.

† Westward movement during preceding decade.
 Total westward movement, 519 miles.

The center of the negro population in 1890 was near Rome, Ga., and was traveling Gulfward.

The center of area of the United States, excluding Alaska and Hawaii and other recent accessions, is in Northern Kansas, in approximate latitude 39° 55', and approximate longitude 98° 50'. The center of population is therefore about three-fourths of a degree south and more than thirteen degrees east of the center of area.

Population of Incorporated Places in United States.

The estimated population of incorporated places in the United States with 10,000 inhabitants or more, 1903, is given by the Census Bureau as 25,806,987, an increase of 7.3 per cent. over 1900.

NEW YORK STATE CENSUS, 1905.

NEW YORK CITY.

The population of New York City on June 1, 1905, as actually enumerated, was 4,000,402, but from this total there was deducted 821 inmates of state and county institutions in the several boroughs of the city, which, under the plan of distributing the inmates of such institutions according to their actual residence at the time of admission to the institution, had been credited to other counties of the state, while there had been added 14,200 inmates of institutions who, at the time of their admission, were residents of New York City. These deductions and additions give a total population of 4,013,781, distributed by boroughs as follows:

Boroughs.	1905.	1900.	1890.
Manhattan	2,112,380	1,850,093	*1,441,216
Bronx	271,630	200,507	*88,908

Totals for city 4,013,781 3,487,202 2,507,414

*Estimated population of present area of boroughs.

These figures show an increase in population of N. Y. City from 1900 to 1905 of 576,579, or 16.8 per cent., as compared with an increase for the same area during the preceding 10 years of 929,788, or 37.1 per cent. The increases by boroughs are as follows:

The plan of distributing the population of public institutions is not observed in the U. S. Census and the gains or losses thus due should be borne in mind in making comparisons with the last two federal censuses. The net gain or loss in population in 1905, due to distribution of inmates of state and county institutions, according to city or town of residence at admission is summarized by boroughs as follows:

Boroughs.	Net gain.	Net loss.
Manhattan	9,453	..
Bronx	38	..
Brooklyn	3,580	..
Queens	402	..
Richmond	94

The distribution of the population of Manhattan, Bronx, Brooklyn and Queens Boroughs by Assembly districts and of Richmond Borough by wards in 1905, compared with 1900, is as follows:

THE CITIES OF THE STATE (Except Greater New York).

The 44 cities of New York State, representing all cities except Greater New York, have a combined population, by the enumeration of 1905, of 1,686,895, as compared with a total for substantially the same areas in 1900 of 1,506,931, and in 1890 of 1,220,512. The increase, therefore, in the 44 cities, taken as a whole, during the past five years, was 179,964, or 11.9 per cent., as against an increase the preceding ten years of 286,419, or 23.4 per cent. The population of each of the 44 cities in 1905, 1900 and 1890 follows in order of population in 1905:

Labor Wages, 1890-1906.

The relative wages per hour in 1890 were 100.3 per cent. of the average wages per hour for the 10 years from 1890 to 1899, inclusive, or 0.3 per cent. higher than during the period named. The lowest point reached was in 1894, when the relative wages per hour were 97.9. From 1894 the movement was upward for 2 years; in 1897 there was a slight decline. From 1897 there was an advance each year. In 1906 the relative wages per hour reached 124.2, or 24.2 per cent. more than the average for 1890 and 1899. Thus the wages per hour in 1906 in the manufacturing and mechanical industries of the country were higher than in other year of the 17 years covered.

PUBLIC SCHOOLS OF THE CITY OF NEW YORK.

Headquarters, Park av. and 59th, Mhntn.

The Board of Education consists of forty-six members appointed by the Mayor Jan. 1, for a term of 5 years. It consists of 22 members from Manhattan, 14 from Brooklyn, 4 from The Bronx, 4 from Queens and 2 from Richmond, who serve without pay and can hold no office of emolument under county, State or municipal government, except notary public, commissioner of deeds, or offices in the National Guard. Its members may be removed by the Mayor after a hearing for neglect or misconduct, and the Mayor has power to fill all vacancies. It has management and control of the public schools and public school system of the city, and is a corporation. On the first Monday of Feb. in each year the board organizes by the election of one of its members as Pres. It has power to appoint a Sec. of the Board. Supt. of School Bldgs., term six years; Supt. of Supplies, term six years; City Supt. of Schools, term six years; Supervisor of Lectures, term six years; one or more Auditors, a Chief Clerk and other officers, clerks or subordinates as necessary; to appoint 8 Associate City Supts. for a term of six years each, who with the City Supts. constitute the Board of Supts., and to appoint, upon the nomination of the Board of Supts., 26 District Supts. to visit and inspect schools; to establish and conduct elementary schools, kindergartens, manual training schools, trade schools, truant schools, ev'g schools, vacation schools, free lectures and course of instruction, special classes, high schools, training schools for teachers and playgrounds. All applicants for licenses to teach are examined by the Board of Examiners consisting of the City Supt. and four examiners appointed by Board of Education upon the nomination of City Supt. Principals, branch principals, heads of depts., teachers, assistants and all other members of the teaching staff are appointed by the Board of Education on nomination of Board of Supts. Nominations and appointments are made, except in cases of high schools or training schools for teachers, for the several Local School Board Districts, respectively, and of principals, teachers and others from eligible lists prepared by the Board of Examiners in order of the standing of candidates, provided that the Board of Supts. may consider for each appointment the three highest names on the appropriate list. It fixes salaries of members of supervising and teaching staff, salaries to be uniform in all boroughs. Salaries are fixed by the Davis law. The Board of Estimate and Apportionment is required to appropriate for the General School Fund for payment of salaries an amount equivalent to 4 mills on every dollar of assessed valuation of real and personal estate in the city liable to taxation. The title to all property owned or acquired for educational purposes is vested in The City of New York, but is under the control of the Board of Education. The schools are free to all persons between 4 and 21 years of age, except that no child under 6 years shall be received except in kindergarten classes. The Board purchases all books, apparatus, stationery, etc., and upon recommendation of Board of Supts. approves text books, apparatus, etc. Money for the schools is raised by taxation in two funds—special school fund and general school fund. The general fund is for payment of salaries, and the special fund all moneys not comprised in the general fund. The Board has the management of the public school teachers' retirement fund. It makes an annual report to the Mayor between Aug. 1 and Nov. 30, on conditions for the preceding school year, and another report between Jan. 1 and Feb. 15, on the amount of money expended during preceding year. Members of the Board of Education, together with the Pres. of the Normal College, constitute the Board of Trustees of the Normal College, a separate and distinct organization furnishing education gratuitously to girls, pupils in the common schools of the city, or residents of the city. The Board of Trustees has the powers and duties required of trustees of colleges by the Revised Statutes.

The City Supt. of Schools has the right of visitation and inquiry in all of the schools of the city, and reports to the Board on the educational system of the city and the condition of the schools. He has a seat in the Board of Education and the right to speak on all matters before the Board, but not to vote. He must make an annual report to the Board. The Supt. of School Buildings is the executive officer of the Board in all matters relating to school buildings. The Supt. of School Supplies is executive officer of the Board respecting the purchase, storing and distribution of supplies, printing for the Board, transportation of school children, etc.

There are 46 local School Board Districts. In each district there is a Local School Board of 7 members (term five years)—5 appointed by the Pres. of the Borough, a member of the Board of Education designated by the Pres. and the District Supt. The duties of a Local Board are: To visit and inspect schools in the district; report thereon to the Board of Education; to recommend sites and erection of buildings; report to the Board dereliction of duty on the part of the Supt. of Supplies, Supt. of School Buildings, City Supt. or any of their deputies, assistants or employees; to excuse absence of teachers, subject to the approval of the Board of Supts. where teachers are excused with pay; to try and determine all matters relating to discipline, corporal punishment and other matters of administration arising on complaint of pupils, parents or guardians against teachers or principals; to try charges made by principal, Dist. Supt., parent or guardian against a teacher for misconduct, insubordination, neglect of duty or inefficiency; to present charges of any dereliction of duty of janitors; to procure enforcement of the laws of the Board relating to the sanitary condition of schools and the health of pupils; to transfer teachers from school to school.

For all elementary day sch. licenses, minimum 18, maximum from 35 to 45 yrs.; for day high sch., minimum 21, maximum from 40 to 50; for training sch., minimum 21, maximum from 40 to 50.

The age restrictions prescribed for license as prin. of an el., high or tr. sch. does not apply to persons who, under Sec. 1089, Rev. Chart., may be exempted from examination by the City Supt.

QUALIFICATIONS OF LICENSES.

Substitute.—Qualifies holder to render service in the capacity indicated in the license.

Kindergarten.—Qualifies for teacher of kindergarten in an elem. or vacation sch., or of dir. or superv. of kindergarten work in a playground, or for position of teacher of a class for crippled children or of ungraded class, and to act as sub. in classes of the first 6 yrs. in an elem. day school.

License No. 1.—Qualifies holder for position of teacher in an elem. day or ev. school, or teacher of English and nature study in a vacation sch., or of dir. of a playground, or of teacher in a truant sch., except when otherwise provided.

Promotion.—Qualifies as teacher in grades of last 2 yrs. of elem. sch. course, but no person not now teaching in the last 2 yrs. of the elem. sch. course shall be appointed teacher of a grad. class, who, in addition to holding lic. for promotion, has not served at least 2 yrs. in other grades of the last 2 yrs. of the course; it also qualifies as assistant teacher in an ev. high sch.

Shopwork.—Qualifies as position of tchr. of shopwork in an elem. day or an ev. elem., or high sch., or vacation sch.

Special Branch.—Qualifies for position of teacher of such special branch in an elem. sch., an ev. elem. or high sch., or vacation sch.

Asst. to prin. or hd. of dept.—Qualifies for position of asst. to prin. in an elem. sch., or of prin. of an ev. elem. sch., or vac. sch., or to act as tchr. in charge of an elem. sch. of the fourth order.

Exc. as prin. of a high sch. tchr. in or prin. of a training sch. or dir. of a special branch, no person requiring a license is appointed to any teaching or supervising pos. whose name does not appear upon the proper eligible list, and no person is appointed to any supervising or teaching position who has not the required or a superior lic. No married woman is appointed unless her husband is incapacitated from disease to earn a livelihood, or has continuously abandoned her for not less than 3 yrs. prior to date of appointment; provided proof to the Bd. of Supts. is furnished.

Licenses are issued by the City Supt. for 1 yr., and may be renewed by him without exam. If work of the holder is satisf. to him for two successive years, and at the close of the third year of continuous successful service, he may make the lic. permanent. Sub. lic. are issued for 1 yr., subject to renewal by City Supt.

All applicants must present evidence of good moral character and of sound physical health. The evidence of health consists of a cert. issued by physicians of the Bd. of Ed. The physical exam. does not apply to applicants for lic. as ev. sch., vac. sch. and playground tchrs.

All lic. exc. sub. lles., are issued with condition that, if holder does not teach as a regular (not sub.) tchr. in the public sch. of New York City during a period of 5 yrs., becomes void, but the Bd. of Examiners have authority to grant a renewal.

Qualifications in some instances do not apply to persons licensed prior to March 1, 1903, to teach in evening schools, vacation schools, playgrounds and recreation centers.

Any of the substitute licenses established may be granted to a person eligible for examination for a corresponding regular license, where it does not conflict with other provisions of the by-laws.

Qualifications for Appointments as Teachers or Principals.

In the following qualifications for appointments, colleges or universities or examinations refer only to such as are satisfactory to State Board of Education, or City Superintendents or Board of Examiners. Institutions or academies referred to in connection with New York City high schools must have an equivalent rating therewith. The abbreviation "exp" means successful experience in teaching in the branches to which it refers. In other abbreviations the meaning is obvious.

Graduates in New York City Public Schools.

The graduates of pupils in the elementary public schools of N. Y. City (Greater New York) in 1907 were 11,286. This is 86.66 per cent. out of a total registration in the graduating classes of 13,023.

Library Statistics.

N. Y. City spends $900,000 a year for free reading. Upward of 5,000,000 books were circulated during 1907, with an increasing demand at the rate of 350,000 vols. per annum. Four hundred librarians are employed.

Indian Schools.

There are 34 Indian schools, with 36 teachers. The cost of maintenance and repairs is about $16,000 annually. There are 5,000 Indians on the reservations in New York State and about 800 Indian children attend the Indian schools. The schools are wholly under the direction and control of the State Commissioner of Education, who, through local superintendents appointed by him, or directly, as the case may be, employs all the teachers, purchases the supplies and all the fuel, except in rare cases where wood is furnished by the Indians. The compulsory attendance law is enforced so far as the appropriation will allow. The schools are in session for a period of 36 weeks. In addition to such common branches as are taught in the rural schools, an attempt is being made to introduce manual training and domestic science. So far, however, this is conducted only in an experimental way. Wm. K. Harrison, Supt., Allegany and Cattaraugus, res., Salamanca; W. W. Newman, Onondaga, res., R. F. D. 5, Syracuse; H. M. The First Law School in America.

The first law school in America was established in Litchfield, Conn., in 1774, with Judge Tappan Reeve, LL.D., at its head. It had more than one thousand pupils in its existence, sixteen of whom became United States Senators, fifty members of Congress, forty judges of high estate courts, eight chief justices of states, two justices of the United States Supreme Court, ten governors of states, five cabinet officers and several foreign ministers. The building was sold June 24, 1907, to D. C.

Killbourn for $2,705 and will be preserved for historical purposes.

Brooklyn Law School.

The Brooklyn Law School of St. Lawrence University, located in the Eagle Building, is the only law school in Brooklyn. Incorporated in 1901, it now ranks ninth in size in the United States. It has a corps of 12 instructors, and its special lecturers are leading members of the bench and bar. Degrees are conferred in two and in three years.

Carnegie Institution Branch, Cold Spring Harbor, L. I.—C. B. Davenport, Manager. Work in conjunction with the Brooklyn Institute biological laboratory.

The City of Brooklyn was authorized to erect a section of the Museum building at a cost of $257,000. A tract of land bounded by Eastern Parkway, Washington av., a line 100 feet south on the southern boundary of old President st. on the south, and land reserved for Prospect Hill Reservoir on the west, containing 11 9-10 acres and valued at $900,000, was leased by the former City of Brooklyn to the Institute for a term of 100 years. Second section of Museum completed in Nov., 1904, at a cost of $650,000. Third section completed March 3, 1907, at a cost of $442,000.

On this site the first section of the Museum building was completed in May, 1897, and opened to the public June 2, 1897. The entire structure, when completed, will cover an area of 560 square feet, with 4 interior courts. The plan provides for collections illustrating the general history of Art and Architecture on the first floor, rooms for the illustration of the practical Arts and Sciences on the second floor, and galleries for the illustration of the history of Painting, Engraving, Etching and Decorative Art on the third floor. The central portion of the building is carried one story higher than the rest, and in this the Schools of Fine Arts and of Architecture will be located. A second building in Bedford Park, on Brooklyn av., is used as an auxiliary to the main Museum.

The Museum is open week days, 9 A.M. to 6 P.M.; Thursday evenings, 7:30 to 9:45; Sundays, 2 to 6 P.M. On Mondays and Tuesdays a fee of 25 cents for adults and 10 cents for children is charged. On other days admission is free, including holidays.

The Children's Museum, Bedford Park, Brooklyn av. and Prospect pl., is open daily from 9 A.M. to 5:30 P.M.; Sundays, 2 to 5:30 P.M. Free. Miss Anna B. Gallup, Curator.

Public Library.

New York Public Library—Astor, Lenox and Tilden Foundations. Est. by consolidation of the Astor Library, Lenox Library and the Tilden Trust, May 23, 1895. The Astor Library was founded 1849 by John Jacob Astor, the Lenox Library in 1870 by James Lenox. The Tilden Trust, incorp. 1887, received from bequest of Samuel J. Tilden about $2,000,000 as result of compromise made during contest over his will. The permanent site of the consolidated library is 5th av., bet. 40th and 42d, known as Bryant Park. In August, 1901, the Park Dept. contracted with Norcross Brothers to construct the building at a cost of $2,865,706. The corner stone of the new building was laid November 10, 1902.

The trustees of the Library are: J. Bigelow, J. L. Cadwalader, H. Van R. Kennedy, J. S. Kennedy, Edw. King, L. C. Ledyard, Alex. Maitland, S. H. Olin, A. E. Orr, H. C. Potter, G. L. Rives, G. W. Schools for Librarians.

Thirteen library schools have been organized up to 1907 to meet the demand for systematic training of librarians and assistants. Men and women are admitted. The N. Y. State Library School at Albany, established in 1887, is the parent school. The requirements for admission are a complete college course. Diplomas from accredited colleges admit students without examination. The standard of the school, both in entrance requirements and the course of study, which covers two years, is being raised from year to year.

The Pratt Institute Library School, Bkln., admits students only by competitive examinations, which are not technical, but are designed to test the general information of the applicant, especially knowledge of literature, history, current events, French and German. Examinations take place every June. The class is limited to 25. The course of study is for one year, with second year elective courses.

Library schools, irrespective of summer courses, and apprentice classes are connected with the prominent colleges and universities of Ohio, Illinois, Pennsylvania and other states.

For further details of these schools, where summer courses are offered and apprentice classes maintained, see 1907 Almanac.

HOW TO SECURE A COPYRIGHT.

The person desiring a copyright must on or before day of publication in this or foreign country, deliver at the office of the Librarian of Congress, or mail in United States to his address a printed copy of the book, map, chart, musical composition or picture; or a description of the painting, statue, statuary, model or design, if the copyright is desired for work of the fine arts. He must deliver at the office of the Librarian of Congress or deposit in the mail addressed to the Librarian of Congress, two copies of such copyright book or picture, etc.

The address of the Librarian of Congress is Washington, D. C.

To be eligible for copyright a book or photograph must be printed from type set within the United States, or from plates made from them, or from negatives or drawings on stone, or from transfers made therefrom. The fees are:

For recording each title of a book or other article, the production of a citizen or resident of the United States, fifty cents. If a certificate of copyright (i. e., a certificate of the entry of the title) is desired, there is an additional charge of fifty cents, or $1 in all. One certificate can be made to include only one title.

For recording each title of a book or other work, the production of a person not a citizen or resident of the United States, the charge is $1. This fee of $1 is required to be paid for recording the title of every work whose original author or producer is "a person not a citizen or resident of the United States," whether the proprietor of the copyright is or is not a citizen or resident of the United States. A certificate of such record requires the payment of fifty cents additional, or $1.50 in all.

For every copy under seal of the record of entry of title, the charge is fifty cents.

For recording and certifying an instrument of writing for the assignment of a copyright, the charge is $1; and for each copy of an assignment, $1.

Receipts for two copies—for a certified receipt showing the deposit of two copies, the charge is 50 cents.

In no case should any postage stamps or stamped envelopes be sent for reply, as all copyright office mail is forwarded under a government frank.

All remittances should be made by money order, payable to the Registrar of Copyrights. Internal revenue stamps are not required.

The first copyright is good for twenty-eight years.

Satisfactory official assurances have been given that in Austria the law permits to citizens of the United States the benefit of copyright on substantially the same basis as to the subjects of Austria; the President, by proclamation, dated Sept. 20, 1907, has extended to the productions of authors who are subjects of Austria the benefits of the copyright laws of the United States. Therefore, entries can be made in this office for a first term of 28 years of the titles or descriptions of literary, dramatic, musical or artistic works the production of Austrian subjects, upon receipt of proper applications, titles and fees. Upon compliance with the provisions of the Act of March 3, 1905, registration can also be made of works of Austrian authors to secure ad interim protection for one year.

The benefits of copyright are available to American citizens in Belgium, Chile, Costa Rica, Denmark, France, Germany, Great Britain and her possessions (Australasia, Canada, India, etc.), Italy, Mexico, Netherlands (Holland) and possessions, Portugal, Spain and Switzerland. Copyright in the United States does not insure protection in countries other than the United States. Librarian of Congress, Herbert Putnam; Register of Copyrights, Thorwald Solberg.

APPLICATIONS FOR PATENTS.

Applications for letters patent must be made to the Commissioner of Patents, and signed by inventors. It is advisable that applicants employ competent attorneys to prosecute their cases. The office can not aid in selecting such, but has a list from which selections can be made. Specification and claim must be signed by inventor and attested by two witnesses.

The oath made is that inventor believes himself to be original and first discoverer of the art, machine, manufacture, composition, or improvement; that he does not believe or know that it was ever before known or used, and the country of which he is a citizen or subject. This oath may be made before any authorized persons in United States, or before any minister, charge d'affaires, consul or commercial agent, holding a commission under the U. S. Government.

Drawings must be artistically executed. The Patent Office will make necessary corrections at the applicant's option and cost. The office will furnish drawings at cost for applicants who desire that assistance. A working model is often desirable. Applications filed are classified according to the various arts, and are examined in order of filing. Upon rejection of application examiner must cite the best references at his command. If domestic patents be cited, their dates and numbers, the names of the patentees, and the classes of invention are stated. The applicant may amend before or after first rejection or action, and he may amend as often as the examiner presents new reasons for rejection, showing how amendments avoid references and objections. Patents for designs are granted for 3½, 7 or 14 years.

A reissue is granted to original patentee when original patent is inoperative on account of defective specification. Provisions are made for hearings before the commissioner, and interviews with examiners.

Any citizen who has made a new invention or discovery and desires further time to mature same may, on payment of $10, file in Patent Office a caveat setting forth objects and characteristics of the invention. Such caveat is operative for one year.

Following is a schedule of fees, paying in advance: Filing original application, $15; issuing of patent, $20; designs (3½ yrs.), $10; designs (7 yrs.), $15; designs (14 yrs.), $30; caveats, $10; reissue, $30; filing disclaimer, $10. Certified copies of patents, 10c. per 100 words. Certified copies, printed patents, 80c. Uncertified printed copies of specifications and drawings or any number of unclassified copies, 5c. each. For copies by sub-classes, 3c. each. Copying by classes, 2c. each. Recording every assignment, agreement, power of attorney, or other paper, of 300 words or under, $1. For every 300 and under 1,000 words, $2. For over 1,000 words, $3. A receipt or certificate of deposit must be filed in the office within 10 days after money is paid.

Frederick I. Allen, Commissioner of Patents, Washington, D. C.

PRIMARY LAW OF NEW YORK STATE.

The Primary Election Law was originally Chap. 179, Laws of 1898, amended by Chap. 473, Laws of 1899, and in minor detail was amended by Chaps. 204, 205, 225, 506, Laws of 1900; Chaps. 167, 390, Laws of 1901; Chap. 195, Laws of 1902; Chaps. 111 and 595, Laws of 1903; Chaps. 350 and 488, Laws of 1904; Chaps. 207, 674, Laws of 1905; Chaps. 277, 466, Laws of 1906, and Chaps. 296, 744 and 504, Laws of 1907. This act applies only to cities and villages having 5,000 inhabitants or more and provides for the enrollment of members of all political parties. Naturalized citizens may be required to show naturalization papers or certified copy before being registered, and date of such naturalization must be given. The general object of the law is to grant to every registered voter the right to enroll with any party he desires to affiliate with for the purpose of participating in the primaries of such party for the ensuing year. This is accomplished by furnishing, through the inspectors of election, to every person registering as a voter an envelope and secret ballot. The voter indicates his choice of parties by a cross mark in a circle above name of his party. The ballot is then inclosed in an envelope, which is sealed and indorsed by inspectors with name of voter. The sealed envelope is then deposited in a box and kept inviolate until a week after election, when all envelopes are opened and ballots examined, and the political faith expressed thereon of the voters is marked in the enrollment books opposite his name. Under the original law a time was appointed for a supplemental enrollment other than at registration, but that privilege has now been withdrawn in cities of a million inhabitants and over and in cities of the second class, in which one must have enrolled at time of registration to vote at a party primary in the succeeding year. The annual primary day is fixed for the seventh Tuesday before day of general election, except a presidential year, then it is fixed for the tenth Tuesday prior to election, except in cities having a population of a million or over, when the primary day is the sixth Tuesday before election day, except in gubernatorial years, when it is the eighth Tuesday before. In counties containing a city of the first class there are two primary days on the seventh and fifth Tuesdays before election. A primary is also held on the last Tuesday in March in a presidential year for election of delegates to the National Convention. Independence in municipal elections does not deprive the voter of the right to participate in the primary of his party. In cities of the second class in 1906 the provisions of the law shall govern as to enrollment the same as before such cities became of the second class. Subsequently enrollment shall proceed under the provisions of the primary election law.

The enrollment shall be completed before the succeeding 15th of Feb. in each year. If cross marks are found in more than one of the circles, or if no cross marks are found in any of the circles on the enrollment blank, the elector corresponding with said blanks shall not be deemed to be enrolled. Under the law a majority of voters of any party can control the nominations by making nominations direct at the primary instead of by electing delegates, if the general committee of such party so directs. A political party is defined to be an organization which polled at least 10,000 votes at last election of governor. The custodians of primary records are officers or boards providing official ballots at general elections, viz., county clerks and the Board of Police in N. Y. City.

Unofficial primaries may be held at any time by the political parties at their own expense, but notice of same must be published providing official ballots at general election.

Chap. 195, Laws of 1902, provides for enrollment of voters in towns if the general committee of the party so directs, but 43 counties are excepted from the operation of the act.

MUNICIPAL CIVIL SERVICE RULES.

Detailed information at the Civil Service Commission, 246 B'way, Mhtr.

There are four classes of offices and positions.

Exempt Class—Includes all places not subject to examination or registration.

Non-Competitive Class—Comprises positions not in exempt or labor classes, and those not included in the competitive class.

Competitive Class—Comprises all positions subject to competitive examination.

Labor Class—Comprises the labor service.

Examining Board—Board of Examiners, consists of a Chief Examiner and others, appointed by the Municipal Commissioners. No examiner can be a public officer.

Applications—Applications for positions in competitive class must be filed in applicant's hand-writing, addressed to the secretary of the Municipal Civil Service Commission of New York City, but not until the examination has been ordered.

Examinations—All examinations are in writing, except such as refer to expertness or physical qualities, as otherwise provided. In all examinations each subject is marked on scale of 100. No question relating to political or religious opinions can be asked. No appointment to or removal from an office shall be in any manner influenced by such opinions or affiliations. Every candidate who receives a general average marking of not less than 70 per cent., and who has received not less than 20 per cent. in any required subject, or not less than 75 per cent. in any technical subject, when the examination is for a position of scientific, professional or technical nature, shall be eligible for certification and appointment. Candidates for the position of patrolman to be eligible for appointment must obtain an average of not less than 70 per cent. on the mental test and 70 per cent. on physical development and strength. Candidates for the position of fireman who obtain an average of over 80 per cent. on physical development and strength and a final average of 75 per cent. shall also be eligible for appointment.
